

Soulful Sunday

What did you learn or feel deeply this week?

Radiance Reboot

A close-up portrait of a woman with dark, curly hair. She is looking directly at the camera with a calm expression. Her hands are clasped together, with her index fingers pointing upwards and touching, positioned over her mouth in a universal gesture for silence or secrecy. She is wearing a light-colored, patterned sweater. The background is softly blurred, showing what appears to be a window with light coming through.
