PRIDE MONTH BOOK PICKS

ABC of Equality, Diversity and Inclusion in Healthcare only has about 100 pages, but is packed with a great deal of information about how to approach or change the norm in healthcare practices. The editors of this book provide research-based information and additional reading sources as well as tips for Inclusive History-taking and much more.

The House by the Cerulean Sea by TJ Kline is on my to-be-read list and I’ve heard many wonderful things about it. Nilufer Ozmekik, a

Goodreads Reviewer, has this to say about the book: “I fell for the world building, creative-crazy-unique ideas, character development! This is not only a regular YA fantasy novel. This book is about acceptance, caring, opening your heart and soul! As a summary: this book is about unconditional love and respecting differences of others.”
